Little Italy Association to announce Little Italy Street Festival headliners at its 2nd annual “Little Italy Tree Lighting” at Engine 5 on December 14th

(ROCHESTER, NY) -- The Little Italy Association and the Rochester Fire Department’s Engine 5 Firehouse on Lyell Avenue, will be hosting Little Italy’s 2nd annual “Little Italy Tree Lighting” on Saturday, December 14th, from 5-7pm. The event will feature Santa and Mrs. Claus for the kids, delicious Italian Christmas cookies donated by DiPaolo Baking Co., and holiday music by DJ Bobby Base. The event is presented by the ESL Federal Credit Union, the Local 1071 IAFF Firefighters Union and the Little Italy Association.

Cortez Jones, Branch Manager at ESL: “We are delighted to be this year’s presenting sponsor. We believe the work that the Little Italy Association is doing, brings a ray of hope to the Lyell area, and helps improve the quality of life for city residents, while promoting economic development opportunities in the area.”

John Joseph, Secretary of the Local 1071 IAFF Firefighters Union: “We want to help out, and we are proud to provide the tree lights for Little Italy’s Tree Lighting event at Engine 5 this year.”

Dennis Keady, Owner of the Garden Factory: "We're happy to provide the Christmas tree for Little Italy's annual tree lighting. Each year they do a great service to the community."

Silvano Orsi, President of Little Italy Association: "We are fortunate and very grateful to all of our sponsors and partners, and we will continue to do our work to revitalize the area, with public events and area beautification initiatives. Nothing speaks more of community and togetherness, than a tree lighting does."

Thomas Labue, Owner of Flat Iron Cafe and Center City Liquor, and VP of Little Italy Association: "We are committed to commemorating the great 150-year history of the Italian-American community in the Little Italy Historic District, and to welcoming and promoting all cultures in the area, with our inclusive events and programs. We are proud to partner with this event and the district revitalization initiative."

The Little Italy Association plans on announcing its 7th annual "Little Italy Street Festival" music headliners at this exciting community tree lighting event, just before the tree is lit.

FREE HOT HOLIDAY BUFFET

began as a dream just a few, short months ago and has grown to be the first community choir of the Northeast Quadrant - with membership including all ages, all levels, and from every corner of the city. With the support of friends, neighbors, teachers, parents, and a team of professional musical directors, the choir marks its inaugural performance this year at the Free Annual Holiday Concert with the Joseph Avenue Arts and Culture Alliance at Upper Room Family Worship Center Saturday, December 14th at 4:00pm. We invite all members of the community to join us in song - yes, even from your seat at the performance - and for a free hot holiday buffet after the performance!

Here's another look at the choir plus how you can join in the fun this Saturday!
