

September 28 Weekend Happenings

SE

Southeast Library Events

Book Sale!

Stop in to browse our collection of books and other materials available to buy during our fall book sale! Materials will be for all age levels, prices as marked, and you can fill a standard size grocery bag for $1

Saturday, September 28, 2019
10:00am - 2:00pm
Frederick Douglass Community Library
All Ages

Squirrel & Chipmunk Storytime & Walk

Family Event. Highland Park Conservancy and Sarah Ngo, Children's Librarian at the Frederick Douglass Library, will present stories and information about squirrels and chipmunks with a walk in the park to look for them! Blankets and snacks are welcome for storytime. Free and open to the public.

Saturday, September 28, 2019
10:00 AM to 11:30 AM
Meet at Lambertton Conservatory

Read to Pi

Read to Pi, a registered therapy dog with Therapy Dogs International. Reading to dogs is a great way to practice reading in a relaxed and fun environment.

Saturday, September 28, 2019
12:00pm - 1:00pm
Monroe - Children's Room, Monroe Branch

NE

Coffee with the Mayor The Chai Guy Rochester Public Market
9/29/19 8am – 10am

Complete Street Makeover N. Clinton Ave Between Sullivan St and Hoeltzer St
9/29/19 1pm-6pm

